Final Meeting in Thessaloniki

The final transnational meeting of the “BecomeBusy Xelerator – BBX” project successfully took place in Thessaloniki on 24 October 2025, bringing together partners from Greece, Germany, Bulgaria, and France to officially close a two-year journey of youth innovation and entrepreneurship.

During the meeting, partners evaluated the project’s outcomes, shared insights on best practices, and reflected on the inspiring journey that empowered dozens of young entrepreneurs across Europe through the Green X, Tech X, and Social Xelerators.

The consortium highlighted the remarkable progress made during the project, from the launch of the BBX Digital Platform and the implementation of local Idea Generation Labs, to the successful Xelerator trainings and the final Graduation Day. These milestones showcased how BBX created real opportunities for young people to learn, connect, and grow as innovators.

Looking Ahead

The Thessaloniki meeting was not only a moment of reflection but also of forward thinking. Partners discussed the sustainability of project results, ways to continue supporting the BBX Alumni Network, and potential collaborations for future Erasmus+ initiatives focused on entrepreneurship, innovation, and youth empowerment.

to all partners, young participants, trainers, and stakeholders who contributed to this inspiring adventure.

Your creativity, energy, and commitment made BBX a true success and a model for empowering youth-led innovation across Europe.
